

General Notes:	(1) It is Government policy to place people with a disability in appropriate jobs wherever possible. If a disabled applicant meets the basic entry requirements, he/she will be invited to attend the written test without being subject to shortlisting. Applicants who have declared disabilities found suitable for appointment may be given an appropriate degree of preference over other applicants whose suitability for appointment is considered comparable to that of the former. The Government policy and other related measures on employment of persons with disabilities are set out in the booklet “Employ People Based on Their Abilities – Application for Government Jobs by Persons with Disabilities” which is available for reference on the Civil Service Bureau's website (http://www.csb.gov.hk) under “Administration of the Civil Service – Appointments”. (2) As an Equal Opportunities Employer, the Government is committed to eliminating discrimination in employment. The vacancies advertised are open to all applicants meeting the basic entry requirements irrespective of their disability, sex, marital status, pregnancy, age, family status, sexual orientation and race. (3) Applicants not meeting the Entry Requirements or applications not accompanied with supporting documents specified in 1(a), 1(b), 1(c) or 1(d) of the “How to Apply” section below by the prescribed time will not be considered. (4) Copies of documents specified in 1(d) and 1(e) of the “How to Apply” section below may be transferred to the HKIE for assessing if the applicant's qualifications meet the academic requirements of the corporate membership of the HKIE and admission to their Training Scheme ‘A’. (5) All applicants considered suitable to proceed further in the recruitment will be invited to sit in a written test to be held in Hong Kong tentatively in November 2026. Applicants located outside Hong Kong may opt to sit for the written test to be held at a designated time and location in London, the United Kingdom. If applicants decide to take the written test outside Hong Kong, they shall indicate their preference in the supplementary letter of the application as specified in 1(a) of the “How to Apply” section (hereunder referred to as “the Supplementary Letter”). Each applicant can only take one of the written tests. The written test will assess the applicants’ English and Chinese writing abilities as well as their knowledge of geotechnical engineering. Applicants not being invited to attend the written test may consider their applications unsuccessful and will not be notified separately. (6) Applicants with higher scores in the written test will be invited to attend a selection interview in person scheduled tentatively between December 2026 and February 2027 in Hong Kong. Applicants located outside Hong Kong may indicate their preferred date of the selection interview in the Supplementary Letter; or they opt to attend a selection interview (conducted by video conference) in person at a designated time and location in London, the United Kingdom. Applicants will be further tested on their knowledge of geotechnical engineering and language proficiency in English and Chinese at the interview. Applicants not being invited to attend the interview may consider their applications unsuccessful and will not be notified separately.
